This is an inaugural event and is open to Guides from 10 years old plus.

Young Guides from all over the state will join together for an evening of fun and exciting onsite activities.

When?
One overnight camp will be held over 29 November 2014 starting at 5.30pm and concluding 30 November 2014 whenever your adventures on Sunday within the Zoo finish.

Where?
Zoodoo Wildlife Park.

Zoodoo Wildlife Park is a wildlife park about 6 kilometres from Richmond, Tasmania. It is spread over 90 hectares. Originally an Ostrich farm and miniature pony stud, Zoodoo first opened to the public on 2 July 1999 with just a few native animals. It has grown quickly to become one of Tasmania's largest wildlife parks, containing lions, zebras, native animals and lemurs.

Cost?
$45 (Includes dinner, a souvenir, camp badge and entry into the park the next day).
